

AULC Annual Conference 2014 - 9th & 10th January 2014 'Shaping change in language learning: looking back to move forward'

Parallel Sessions – English / Foreign Languages / Technology

English Sessions

- Thursday 12.30pm
The Bilingual Learner in Higher Education: Needs and provision
Lelia Murtagh, University College Dublin
 - Thursday 3.00pm
Language, Communication or Professional Skills? An imbedded approach to language curricula design in a university setting
Helen Kelly, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
 - Thursday 3.30pm
English and Internationalisation in the Context of University Language Centres
Lorna Carson, Trinity College Dublin
-

Foreign Languages Sessions

- Thursday 12.30pm
Open Educational Resources to support the development of reading skills for postgraduates
Jocelyn Wyburd, Univeristy of Cambridge
 - Thursday 3.00pm
Learning French in elective modules: using online tools to create storytelling
Lucy Parkin,
 - Thursday 3.30pm
Models of Language Learning: Promoting communicative and plurilingual competence
Anna Nunan, University College Dublin
-

Technology Sessions

- Thursday 12.30pm
Are you MOOC'ing it too?
Caroline Stockman, K.U.Leuven
- Thursday 3.00pm
Improving language learner experience with 'out-of-classroom' collaborative learning activities using NFC-enabled mobile devices
Simon Wardman, Central College Nottingham
& Thomas Sweeney, University of Nottingham
- Thursday 3.30pm
Changing roles for Language Centres: The Linguacast Project
Andrew Grenfell, Newcastle University